2. Those tasked with the responsibilities of providing learning resources to schools should make available all the resources (human, material, physical and financial) that can aid effectiveness of basic schools.

3. Learning resources (human, material, physical and financial) should be adequately supplied to basic schools for effectiveness to be achieved.

References

