are happy to learn, so that children can gain learning interest from the games. It is worthwhile improving children’s English vocabulary learning by using Augmented Reality in their daily lives via mobile learning.

References

